

CYCLE QUEENSLAND

Bundaberg to Brisbane
Saturday 30 August to Sunday 7 September 2008

Travel Insurance Notes

February 2008

This Information Sheet is a brief summary of insurance cover provided for riders as part of Cycle Queensland. Bicycle Queensland members have additional cover types that are separate from this.

This document does not contain advice on insurance. You should pursue your own independent advice on appropriate levels of cover.

Travel Insurance

Travel insurance is included with the entry fee to Cycle Queensland 2008 for all riders who pay a fee. Infants are covered through their parents.

Who provides the cover?

Our insurance broker, Cyclecover, has arranged the policy through Calliden Limited.

What is covered?

A quick summary of the cover is:

- Period: Date application is received to 9th Sept 2008
- Age Limit: 80 Years
- Loss of Deposits: 80% of Loss of Deposits claim - limited to a maximum of $800
- Additional Expenses: $1,000
- Baggage: $2,500 Including Bicycles
- Capital Benefit: $10,000
- Excess: $50 Each & Every Claim

For further detail refer to www.bq.org.au select Info Sheets then locate Insurance and the Travel Insurance Summary document and for even further detail refer to Cyclecover's website at www.cyclecover.com.au select Association Programs – Bicycle Qld then select Travel Insurance.

FAQs

- To make a claim contact Bicycle Queensland.
- Once you have started the event the Loss of Deposits component becomes inactive i.e. if you leave after the start you cannot claim for refund of part of your entry fees.
- As in most situations you should keep your valuables with you at all times e.g. camera, jewelry. On CQ it is difficult to secure these to the standard required by the insurance policy.
- Lock your bike when not in visual sight of it.
- Loss, theft or misplacement of general property requires a police report within 24 hours.